TBRA LANDLORD/OWNER TERMS

Once tenant applicant is pre-approved for TBRA rental assistance, the following terms will be used...

- The landlord/owner must submit a completed W-9 tax form, which CCSCT can provide if requested.
- A home inspection of the rental property is required to confirm that the unit meets suitable living conditions per HUD (Department of Housing and Urban Development) guidelines. Items not meeting HUD guidelines will need to be corrected or repaired at landlord/owner expense.
- Even if the client has a current lease agreement, a new rental lease agreement is required, dated after the home inspection is completed and approved.
- After final state approval, the initial rental subsidy payment and/or security deposit check (if applicable) may take up to 120 days to be received by the landlord/owner. Once final state approval is received, CCSCT will issue rent payments directly by mail to the landlord/owner. During the interim of up to 120 days, tenants must make payment arrangements with landlord/owner as needed.
- The initial TBRA Subsidy check will be retroactive back to the new rental lease agreement start date. Payment may include the security deposit (if applicable). If retroactive payments result in a credit to the tenant, landlord/owner must make credit or refund arrangements with tenant as needed.
- Tenant remains responsible for any amount owed to the landlord/owner. Tenant is solely responsible for paying late charges and/or any other fees. In the event that final approval from the state is not received or if contact dates are adjusted for any reason, the tenant will be responsible for paying any amount owed to landlord/owner.
